Georgia DUI Laws

First DUI Offense

- complete DUI School
- fine not less than $300 or more than $1000
- jail term of not less than 10 days or more than 12 months, however, the judge may suspend or probate all but 24 hours
- not less than 40 hours of community service unless BAL was .08 or less, in such case the community may be as little as 20 hours
- a clinical evaluation, unless waived by the court
- completion of a treatment program if recommended by the evaluation
- 12 months probation

Aggravating circumstances could result in additional jail time. These circumstances include:

- Speeding more than 30 mph over the posted speed limit
- Going the wrong way on the highway
- Alcohol level of 0.8 or above
- Refusing the BAC tests
- Causing an accident that harms or kills someone
- Having children under the age of twelve in your car.

If you are guilty of one of the above conditions, Georgia DUI law says that you must spend up to four days in jail. You cannot be released until those four days are served.
